Uganda & Rwanda at a Glance

Uganda is a land of variety. In just one trip, you can move from green forests filled with gorillas and chimpanzees, to golden grasslands with elephants and lions, to peaceful lakes and rivers where birds sing and fishermen smile. The air is fresh, the people are warm, and nature welcomes you at every turn. It’s a country full of surprises and endless beauty.

Rwanda is calm, clean, and stunning. Picture rolling green hills, cool mountain breezes, and quiet paths through the forest where you can meet gentle gorillas.
